WELCOME TO ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE!

Our parish community welcomes all those visiting with us today. We thank you for joining our community in praising the Lord as we remember His great love and mercy for us. We hope that you will join us again soon and bring a friend. If, per chance, you are looking for a spiritual home based on the Sacred Scriptures, the teaching of the Apostles, the ancient Church Traditions in the context of a liturgical life and fellowship, please consider our parish! Speak with Father Michael or Deacon Michael if you would like more information.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

TALENT SHOW! This year, our kids are giving us a demonstration of their talents on Thomas Sunday, April 23 after Divine Liturgy. It will also be our Parish Potluck Sunday as we celebrate our patron, Saint Thomas the Apostle as well as all our April birthdays. Come and see the many ways our Lord has blessed our children with talents.

BISHOP'S APPEAL: As of April 10, we have raised $7,430.00 for our Bishop's Appeal. Our goal is $16,775.00 and if we reach it, our parish will receive a 30% rebate! While 23 families have made donations, there are 61 families registered on the books. That's only 38% participation from our parishioners! If money is tight, give what you can so that we can have 100% participation in this appeal. Our deadline of May 31 is coming up fast. To those of you who have participated so far, a big thank you!

ROSCA DE REYES PARTY POSTPONED: Martha Coonrod and Tracy Aguayo graciously offered to help plan and cook the meal for the party scheduled for all of us parishioners hosted by Fr. Michael on April 29. Martha's mom got very sick this week and so Martha is flying out to be with her for the next month or so. As a result, the Rosca party is being postponed to another date to be announced.

LOOKING FOR MORE CANTORS & READERS: We would love to have more trained cantors at our parish. Cantors lead the singing responses for everybody and readers chant the epistle reading (letter from St. Paul, St. Peter, etc.) Do you like singing and think you might have a talent for cantoring you would like to share? If so, we want you to explore that with us. Patrick Murphy is our head cantor and would be happy to help mentor and train you. He is the cantor with the black beard. He can also be reached at patrick.j.k.murphy@gmail.com

A MESSAGE FROM FR. MICHAEL

Christ is Risen! Indeed He is Risen!

Dear Parishioners,

What a blessing to share my first Pascha as a priest with all of you! Thank you for sharing with me in the season of Christ's Passion and death so that we can rise to new life in Christ through His Resurrection from the dead.

On the glorious day of His resurrection, Our Lord Jesus Christ met His disciples on their way to Emmaus (Luke 24: 13-35). Yet they did not recognize Him, their teacher, Lord, and Savior. They were so bogged down because of the crucifixion that He seemed no more than a stranger who had no idea of current world events (namely, that the hoped-for Messiah had been crucified a couple days before). When Jesus explained the Scriptures that pointed to all these things and that His crucifixion and death were necessary for the Son of Man to be glorified, they were filled with a new hope - yet still they did not recognize Jesus. It was not until He blessed the bread and gave it to them as His body and blood that they realized He was the RISEN LORD! Now were their mouths full of laughter and their tongues filled with joy (Psalm 125/126: 2).

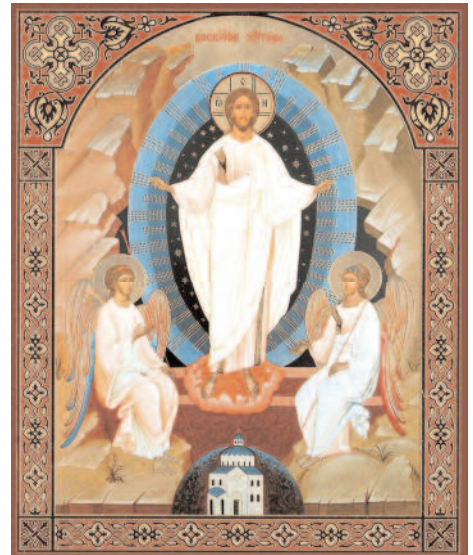

Perhaps this has been a good year for you. Perhaps it has been a stable year. These are great blessings! For some, it may have been a challenging year with sickness or other difficulties with family or work. Perhaps the troubles have been overwhelming... In such times, recall the grief of the disciples on the walk to Emmaus. They were desolate. Everything seemed over.

But Our Lord's words turn their sorrow into hopefulness, expectancy, and joy. "Were not our hearts burning inside us as He talked to us on the road and explained the Scriptures to us?" (Luke 24: 32).

It is my prayer that your hearts may turn from the daily struggle, and be renewed and filled with the joy of this season of Pascha; the peace and joy that come from rising to new life with the Risen Lord!

Sincerely yours in our Risen Lord Jesus!

Fr. Michael Bezruchka
Pastor

A MESSAGE FROM BISHOP JOHN

Christos Voskrese! Christ is Risen! Voistinnu Voskrese! Indeed He is risen!

Dear Fathers, Deacons, Religious and Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The celebration of Our Lord's Resurrection is the "Feast of Feasts", the crown of the Liturgical year. The icon of the Resurrection depicts this great and glorious Day. We see Christ in bright garments standing in the center. A radiant halo encircles his head; rays of light emanate from his risen body and dispel the darkness. He stands upon the broken gate of death, indicating his victory over death by his own death and resurrection. Christ is seen raising Adam and Eve from the tomb. In freeing them, Christ frees all humanity from the grip of death.

The Lord's Resurrection from the dead reminds us that God will always have the last and victorious word. The Risen Lord signals the triumph of new life over sin, sickness and sorrow; He gives us a new beginning, a time to rebuild and live new lives. When we greet one another with: "Christ is Risen", we are proclaiming that Christ is with us in a new and saving way. If the passion and crucifixion had been the end. If the cross had been the final word, there would be no gospel. For over 2000 years our Church has been a witness of the power and presence of our Lord Jesus Christ risen from the dead.

What we celebrate at Easter is the triumph of truth over falsehood, love over hatred, light over darkness. Our Easter Gospel from St. John describes it this way: "the light shines in the darkness and the darkness has never been able to overpower it." Easter is the feast of new life and hope. It is a feast that must be not only celebrated, but lived. We have new life from Christ; let us live new lives in Him Who is risen from the dead.

My Paschal prayer to all the beloved of our Eparchy is that the Risen Christ's presence and blessings be abundantly experienced by you and your families on Easter Sunday and throughout the year.

Sincerely yours in the Risen and Glorified Christ,

Most Reverend John S. Pazak, C.Ss.R.
Eparchial Bishop of the Holy Protection of Mary Byzantine Catholic Eparchy of Phoenix and Apostolic Administrator of the Eparchy of Saints Cyril and Methodius for the Byzantine Rite Slovaks in Canada

There are also online cantor training and continuing education classes which are being offered beginning April 24. THAT'S REALLY SOON!

Excerpts from a message from Deacon Jeff of the Metropolitan Cantor Institute (MCI):

The Metropolitan Cantor Institute has started a comprehensive program of online courses, aimed at recruiting and training new cantors, and working their existing cantors to sharpen their skills.

The following courses will be offered from April to June:

Introduction to the Divine Liturgy - April 24 to June 16, 2017 An 8-week introduction to the singing of the Divine Liturgy. Each student will demonstrate knowledge of ONE melody for each major hymn. Students will record their singing for review and feedback. This course assumes the knowledge and skills taught in Introduction to Liturgy and Introduction to Church Singing. Tuition: $75.

Reading in Church - April 24 to May 19

A 4-week course covering the role of the reader, the melody used for the epistle and Old Testament readings, and how to prepare to read in church. Students will record their singing for review and feedback. This course assumes the knowledge and skills taught in Introduction to Liturgy and Introduction to Church Singing, but this material can be learned before the reader's course if the student is motivated. Tuition: $30.

Introduction to the Typikon - May 22 to June 16

A 4-week course that teaches cantors the skills necessary to determine the changeable hymns to be sung at the Divine Liturgy throughout the year. (No singing component.) Tuition: $30. Please pass the word on to anyone in your parish who might be interested. A registration form can be found at
